STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE
(For use by law enforcement officer in the District of Virginia)

I state that on February 20 20 while exercising my duties as a law enforcement officer in the Eastern District of Virginia on 9 February 2020 at 1700 hours I received a report of three individuals accessing the installation in an unauthorized manner. First, they started the saw through Asian individuals entered through a closed gate. These individuals were identified by their driver license and passports. Qin was identified by her Chinese passport and did not speak English. Her daughter Hui Ying Qin stated they did enter through the way that was mentioned before. An IAD was run on Qin and she was here legally and came back clear. Qin was transported and transported back to the plane. Once all paperwork was completed, Qin was given one GVB and released off the installation. Qin was extremely polite the entire encounter.

The foregoing statement is based upon:
